

Grace Community Church
Privacy Policy

Your Privacy is Important to Us

Grace Community Church recognizes that your privacy is important. This privacy policy explains how we collect and use personal information.

Grace Community Church collects your personal information only when you knowingly provide it by submitting forms to the church, registering for church activities, or participating in the Online Community. The information we collect may include sensitive information that is relevant to your participation in the church, like health information or information about your beliefs.

Grace Community Church uses your personal information for the following purposes:

- To establish and maintain your involvement with the church.
- To provide you with general information about the church and its ministries.
- To provide products or services that you request from the church.
- To register you for activities in which you choose to participate.
- To contact you in case of emergency.

The following individuals may have access to your personal information:

- The church Pastors, Elders, and Staff.
- Leaders of groups in which your family participates, for example, Children Ministry, Small Group, and Youth Group leaders.

A few of our church ministries, like Money Sense and Grace Cares, involve partnerships with third-party organizations. If you participate in one of these ministries, we may, with your permission, provide your personal information to the third party.

On occasions we may send mass emails that announce upcoming church or community events/activities. You can opt out by following the direction at bottom of the email or use the "Let Us Know" form located in our Church Bulletin.

If you choose to be part of our church directory by Filling out the "Let Us Know" form located in our Church Bulletin, the church will publish your name, address, and home phone number in printed directories, and on CD-Rom in PDF format to make the information available to our Church Community.

Grace Community Church takes reasonable steps to keep your personal information accurate and secure. We store most information in the church office. Registration cards for specific activities may be held by the leaders of those activities.

If you have questions about our Privacy Policy, or if you believe that Grace Community Church has misused your personal information, please contact our church office. We will work quickly to answer questions and resolve problems.
